This Code of Conduct (“the Code”) seeks to provide practical guidance on the way in which General Committee (“GC”) members of the Kowloon Cricket Club (“KCC” or “the Club”) perform their functions and exercise their powers in managing the affairs of the club, having regard in particular to the law relating to company directors. It also sets out expected standards of personal behaviour on the part of GC members.

Application

The Code applies to each GC member, not only when he or she is conducting the affairs of the club (whether as a GC member, Officer or Sporting Representative), but also in everyday situations, within and outside the club, where the conduct of the GC member might have an adverse impact on the interests of the club, its members, its staff or other stakeholders.

Provisions of the Code

1. A GC member must act honestly and in good faith for the benefit of the club as a whole.
2. A GC member must perform his or her functions and exercise his or her powers for a proper purpose, in the best interests of the club as a whole and not for purposes which are different from the purposes for which those functions and powers were conferred.
3. A GC member has a duty to use reasonable care, skill and diligence in the performance of functions and the exercise of powers as a GC member and should seek appropriate advice where he or she lacks sufficient knowledge or expertise in any matter.
4. A GC member must avoid conflicts between personal interests and the interests of the club. Any actual or potential conflict of interest must be declared to the GC at the earliest opportunity and the GC member in question must absent himself or herself from the GC meeting whilst that matter is being considered, unless the GC decides otherwise.
5. A GC member must not make improper use of information obtained as a GC member.
6. A GC member must not use his or her position as such member to gain, whether directly or indirectly, a personal or pecuniary advantage for himself or herself or for a third party or otherwise use his or her position to cause detriment to the Club.
7. A GC member must not accept any benefit, pecuniary or otherwise, from a third party, which is given either because of the powers he or she has as a GC member or by way of reward for the exercise of such powers, whether in the past or in the future, unless such benefit has first been specifically authorised. The offer of any such benefit must be reported by the GC member to the GC at the earliest opportunity.
8. A GC member must act in accordance with the general law, company law and the club's memorandum and articles of association and bye-laws and must comply with resolutions that are made in accordance with the club's constitution.

9. Every decision made by the GC is a collegiate decision and a GC member must therefore accept collective responsibility for each GC decision and must not seek to undermine that decision.
10. Whilst a GC member is expected to maintain the ethos of transparency fostered by the GC, he or she must nevertheless keep confidential discussions and decisions of the GC which relate to certain sensitive matters, which include, for example, disciplinary matters and personal information relating to individual club members.
11. A GC member must maintain a high standard of propriety at all times and must avoid bringing the club into disrepute.

ANNEX B

Complaint and Disciplinary Procedures

(A) Complaint Procedures

Introduction

1. These procedures govern the handling of complaints which are received from any source about the conduct of Members and Subscribers and that of their Children, Guests, Visitors and Employees on club premises, where such conduct may constitute a breach of the Articles of Association or the Bye Laws.
2. These procedures do not relate to complaints about the conduct of club staff, whether towards club users or other club staff, nor do they relate to conduct which takes place other than on club premises. Such complaints are the subject of separate procedures.
3. Where a complaint concerns the conduct of a Member or Subscriber's Child, Guest, Visitor or Employee, the subject of any disciplinary proceedings arising out of that complaint shall be the Member or Subscriber concerned.

Making a Complaint

4. A complaint should be made as soon as possible after the occurrence of the conduct complained of. Complainants should be aware that any delay in making a complaint may jeopardize its investigation and resolution.
5. A complaint may be made verbally, in the first instance, to a member of staff or to the General Manager or in his absence, to a senior member of the management staff. In most cases the complainant should be asked to put the complaint in writing to the General Manager or to the Secretary, particularly where the complaint is serious in nature.
6. A complainant should seek to identify the person whose conduct forms the basis of the complaint, either by asking that person to identify themselves or by seeking the assistance of club staff or management. Where that person is not a Member or Subscriber, the complainant should also, where possible, seek to establish the identity of the Member or Subscriber responsible for the conduct of that person. In all cases, the complainant should give sufficient details of the conduct complained of to enable it to be further considered.

Receiving a Complaint

7. The recipient of a complaint should request and note down the identity (and where appropriate, the membership number) of the complainant and all other persons involved in the complaint, including any witnesses, together with brief details of the nature of the complaint.
8. Where the recipient of a complaint is a member of staff, he or she should report the matter forthwith to the General Manager, who should immediately record the time and date of receipt of the complaint and brief details of it in a logbook kept for that purpose.

Handling a Complaint

9. All complaints should be investigated expeditiously and impartially by the General Manager or in his absence by a designated senior member of the management staff, who may at any stage call for assistance and advice from the club lawyer, if required.
10. The investigation of a complaint shall be kept confidential as far as possible.
11. Where possible, the General Manager should make an effort to resolve a complaint verbally.
12. Where it is not possible to resolve a complaint verbally, the General Manager should request the complainant to put the complaint in writing (if this has not already been done) and if possible, supply corroboration of the complaint in the form of a written statement by any persons who witnessed the conduct complained of.
13. The General Manager should obtain a written statement from any member of staff or other person who is known to have witnessed the conduct complained of. Where a witness is under the age of 18, he or she should neither be interviewed nor invited to make an immediate statement unless a parent or legally-appointed guardian is present at the time.
14. The General Manager should examine any document, record or CCTV recording maintained by the club, which may relate to the complaint and wherever possible make a copy thereof.
15. At this juncture, the General Manager should consider whether or not the evidence relating to the complaint discloses, on the face of it, a possible breach of the Articles of Association or the Bye Laws. Where that does not appear to be the case, the complainant should be informed in writing accordingly. Where a possible breach does appear to have occurred, the General Manager should inform the Member or Subscriber apparently responsible accordingly and in so doing should identify the particular provisions which appear to have been breached. At the same time, the General Manager should also supply the Member or Subscriber concerned with written particulars of the complaint and copies of all written statements relating to it which have been received from the complainant, the complainant's witnesses and from any member of staff, together with copies of any club record, document or CCTV recording relating to the complaint (where permissible, having regard to personal data and privacy requirements). Where it is not possible to make a copy of any CCTV recording, the General Manager should afford the Member or Subscriber (and if necessary the complainant) a reasonable opportunity of viewing the recording which, in the case of a person under the age of 18, must be in the presence of a parent or legally-appointed guardian.

16. When supplying the Member or Subscriber with the above-mentioned particulars of the complaint, the General Manager should request the Member or Subscriber to respond in writing to the complaint within 21 days or within such longer period as the General Manager shall consent to as being reasonable in the circumstances.
17. The Member or Subscriber should also be invited, in his or her written response, to say whether or not he or she accepts the allegations made in the complaint and if not, to explain his or her version of the matter and to make any submissions felt necessary in relation to the complaint and the evidence put forward to support it. Any such written submissions may be made by a lawyer on behalf of the Member or Subscriber. At the same time the Member or Subscriber should be invited to supply a written statement from any witness to the conduct which is complained of and also a written statement from the Child (where possible), Guest, Visitor or Employee of the Member or Subscriber, if the complaint relates to any of those persons.
18. If the Member or Subscriber fails to respond to the complaint within 21 days (or any longer period allowed by the General Manager) and/or fails to supply witness statements or statements from the person to whom the complaint relates (if not the Member or Subscriber), then the General Manager may proceed as if the Member or Subscriber had served notification that he or she would not be providing any such document or material.
19. When the General Manager has received a response to the complaint from the Member or Subscriber, he shall submit, without undue delay, a covering report outlining the nature of the complaint to the Officers who, depending upon the nature of the complaint, may refer the matter to the Discipline Sub-Committee or that some other form of action be taken. No Officer who is a member of the Discipline Sub-Committee shall consider such report.
20. Thereafter, the General Manager shall promptly forward the covering report and all the documentary evidence to the Chairman of that Sub-Committee. Where the Officers decide that the complaint merits some other form of action, for example the issue of a warning letter, they shall instruct the General Manager accordingly.

(B) Disciplinary Procedures Without an Oral Hearing

Convening a Panel

21. Upon receiving the General Manager's covering report and accompanying evidence about a complaint, the Chairman of the Discipline Sub-Committee shall convene a panel to consider the complaint. The panel shall consist of three members of the Discipline Sub-Committee, one of whom shall, if possible, be a lawyer. The Chairman of the Sub-Committee or in his absence a member of the Sub-Committee appointed by him for that purpose, shall chair the panel and shall direct its proceedings.

22. The panel chairman shall fix the date, time and place for the consideration of the complaint by the panel.
23. Should any panel member have witnessed the conduct which is the subject of the complaint or feel for any reason that he or she would be unable to consider the complaint in an unbiased or unprejudiced manner, he or she shall immediately inform the chairman of the panel, who will then substitute that member with another member of the Discipline Sub-Committee.
24. The panel chairman shall notify the complainant and the Member or Subscriber concerned that a disciplinary panel has been convened to consider the complaint and shall inform all parties of the identity of the chairman and members of the panel. Within 7 days of being so notified, the complainant and the Member or Subscriber may, upon good cause being shown, lodge with the chairman a written objection to any panel member, whereupon the chairman shall have the right, in his absolute discretion, to make a final decision on the composition of the panel, having considered any applicable conflict of interest guidelines or code of conduct then subsisting.
25. The Member or Subscriber may request an oral hearing of the complaint by the panel, which must be supported by written reasons. The panel chairman shall then consider, having regard to such reasons whether, on the grounds of fairness, the request should be granted. The panel chairman may at any time, of his own volition, decide that an oral hearing would be more appropriate, having regard to the source or nature of the evidence. In either case, the panel chairman shall inform all parties of his decision. Where the panel chairman decides that an oral hearing shall take place, the procedures at section (C) hereof shall apply.

Consideration of the Complaint

26. In considering the complaint, the panel shall give due consideration to all of the evidence placed before it, whether written, documentary or otherwise, including any witness statements and written submissions.
27. The panel may, at its full discretion, admit or reject any evidence adduced and the Evidence Ordinance (Cap 8) and laws relating to the admissibility of evidence shall not apply to the panel proceedings.
28. The standard of proof shall be the civil standard of proof namely, on the balance of probabilities.
29. No other person shall take part in the deliberations and decisions of the panel save the members of the panel.

The Panel's Decision

30. Following the conclusion of its deliberations, the panel shall decide (unanimously or by majority) whether the complaint against the Member or Subscriber is or is not proved, having taken into account all relevant matters. The panel shall not be obliged to give reasons for its decision, but may do so in its absolute discretion.

31. Where the panel decides that the complaint is not proved, the panel chairman shall forthwith inform the General Committee accordingly and the General Committee, upon approving that decision, shall instruct the General Manager to advise the parties in writing of that decision and of the fact that the matter is now closed.
32. Where the panel decides that the complaint is proved, the chairman of the panel shall inform the parties of the decision, the range of possible sanctions and the proposed sanction. The chairman will also inform the parties that the decision and the proposed sanction are subject to approval by the General Committee and shall invite the Member or Subscriber to make written submissions on the proposed sanction within 14 days, for consideration by the General Committee.
33. Written submissions regarding the proposed sanction may be made and submitted to the General Committee by a lawyer on behalf of the Member or Subscriber.
34. The General Committee will then consider the panel's decision, the proposed sanction and any written representations as to sanction made by or on behalf of the Member or Subscriber before making a final decision on the matter and the appropriate sanction, (which should take into account any previous sanctions for similar misconduct). The General Manager will then advise the Member or Subscriber in writing of the General Committee's decision and of the right, under Article 73, to appeal that decision to an Extraordinary General Meeting of Members.

(C) Disciplinary Procedures at an Oral

Hearing Convening a Panel

35. Where, following receipt of the General Manager's covering report and the accompanying evidence about a complaint, the Chairman of the Discipline Sub-Committee has decided, either of his own volition or following a request from the Member or Subscriber concerned, that an oral hearing shall be held, he shall convene a panel to consider the complaint.
36. The panel shall consist of three members of the Discipline Sub-Committee, one of whom shall, if possible, be a lawyer. The Chairman of the Sub-Committee or in his absence a member of the Sub-Committee appointed by him for that purpose, shall chair the panel and shall direct the proceedings before the panel.
37. Should any panel member have witnessed the conduct complained of or feel for any reason that he or she would be unable to consider the complaint in an unbiased or unprejudiced manner, he or she shall immediately inform the chairman of the panel in writing, who will then substitute that member with another member of the Discipline Sub-Committee.
38. The chairman of the panel, through the General Manager, shall inform the complainant and the Member or Subscriber concerned in writing of the names of the chairman and members of the panel.
39. Within 7 days of being so notified, the complainant and the Member or Subscriber may, upon good cause being shown, lodge with the chairman a written objection to any panel member, whereupon the chairman shall have the right, in his absolute discretion, to make a final decision on the composition of the panel, having considered any applicable conflict of interest guidelines or code of conduct then subsisting.

Fixing a Hearing Date

40. The panel chairman shall, in consultation with all parties due to attend the hearing, fix the date, time and place for the hearing and consideration of the complaint by the panel.
41. The panel chairman may consider, in his sole discretion, timely requests for an adjournment of the hearing, if supported by reasons from the party concerned and may require evidence in support of such reasons. Adjournments may only be granted in exceptional cases and a party has no right to require an adjournment merely to suit the convenience of a witness.

Failure to Attend

42. If a party fails to attend the hearing, the panel may hear and decide the complaint in the absence of that party, if it is satisfied that the party was duly notified of the hearing and has given no good reason for being absent and that it would be fair and just to proceed without that party being present.
43. Before deciding to proceed in the absence of any party, the panel must consider the written representations, if any, submitted by that party.

Consideration of the Complaint

44. Proceedings before the panel are informal and shall be conducted in English. Where any party, including a witness, requires an interpretation service, written notification of that requirement shall be given to the chairman of the panel at least 7 days before the date of the hearing.
45. Where a party, including a witness, is under the age of 18, he or she must be accompanied at all times by a parent or legally appointed guardian, with whom the minor may confer, save when giving evidence but who may not address the hearing on behalf of the minor.
46. Legal representation will not be permitted at proceedings before the panel. At the discretion of the panel, an adult party who is not a witness may exceptionally be accompanied by another person, provided that the panel's consent has been sought in writing at least 3 days before the date of the hearing. The accompanying person should normally be a club member, but not a lawyer and may confer with the party but may not address the hearing on behalf of the party.
47. In considering the complaint, the panel shall give due consideration to all of the evidence placed before it, whether in written, documentary, oral or any other form.
48. The panel may, at its full discretion, admit or reject any evidence adduced and the Evidence Ordinance and laws relating to the admissibility of evidence shall not apply to the panel proceedings.
49. The standard of proof shall be the civil standard of proof namely, on the balance of probabilities.

50. No other person shall take part in the deliberations and decisions of the panel save the members of the panel.
51. The chairman of the panel will have the conduct of the proceedings which, unless otherwise directed by the chairman, will be conducted in the following manner.
 - (a) At the beginning of the hearing the chairman will make a short opening statement in which he will outline the nature of the complaint to be considered and the manner and order of proceedings.
 - (b) After his opening statement, the chairman will ask the complainant to make a brief opening submission about the complaint, which may take the form of the complainant reading out a prepared statement.
 - (c) The chairman will then ask the Member or Subscriber to make a brief opening submission, which may again take the form of that person reading out a prepared statement.
 - (d) The complainant will then be invited to present evidence to the panel in support of the complaint. In so doing, the complainant may give evidence and may in turn call witnesses to do so. The evidence given by the complainant and the witnesses may take the form of the complainant and the witnesses each reading out the witness statements that they have already respectively provided to the General Manager and which have in turn been provided to the Member or Subscriber. At the conclusion of the complainant's and each witness's testimony, the Member or Subscriber may question the complainant and the witness.
 - (e) The Member or Subscriber will then be invited to present evidence to the panel in support of his or her case. This may take the form of the Member or Subscriber giving evidence and calling witnesses to do so. In each case the Member or Subscriber and the witnesses called may read out the witness statements that they have each already given to the General Manager and which have in turn been provided to the complainant. The complainant may question the Member or Subscriber and each witness individually at the end of their respective testimony.
 - (f)) The panel members may also question the parties and their respective witnesses at the conclusion of their individual testimony.
 - (g) The panel chairman will then invite the complainant and the Member or Subscriber, in that order, to make closing statements or submissions if they wish to do so, which may address the evidence and the complaint generally.
 - (h) At the conclusion of the closing statements or submissions, if any, the parties will be asked to leave the hearing.

The Hearing

52. The chairman of the panel may request the attendance of witnesses at the hearing.
53. A recording of the hearing will normally be made. A transcript may also be made. Any party to the hearing will normally be provided with a soft copy of the transcript upon request, subject to confidentiality and data privacy considerations.
54. The panel will deliberate and reach its decision in the absence of the parties. At the conclusion of its deliberations, the panel will decide, either unanimously or by a majority, whether the complaint against the Member or Subscriber has been proved or not proved.

The panel decision

55. The panel shall be under no obligation to provide reasons for any of its decisions, but may do so in its absolute discretion.
56. Where the panel decides that the complaint is not proved, the panel chairman shall forthwith inform the General Committee accordingly and the General Committee, upon approving that decision, will instruct the General Manager to advise the parties in writing of that decision and of fact that the matter is now closed.
57. Where the panel decides that the complaint is proved, the chairman of the panel shall inform the parties of the decision, the range of possible sanctions which may be imposed and the proposed sanction. The panel chairman will also inform the parties that the decision and the proposed sanction are subject to approval by the General Committee and shall invite the Member or Subscriber to make written submissions on the proposed sanction within 14 days, for consideration by the General Committee.
58. Written representations regarding the proposed sanction may be made and submitted to the General Committee by a lawyer on behalf of the Member or Subscriber.
59. The General Committee will then consider the panel's decision, its proposed sanction and any written representations as to sanction made by or on behalf of the Member or Subscriber, before making a final decision on the matter and the appropriate sanction (which should take into account any previous sanctions for similar misconduct). The General Manager will then inform the Member or Subscriber in writing of the General Committee's decision and of the right, under Article 73, to appeal that decision to an

ANNEX C

Cricket Section Code of Conduct

All players that represent the KCC Cricket Section must abide by the terms contained in this Code of Conduct.

Objectives

Our objective is to ensure that all players, Members and Non – Members, when representing Kowloon Cricket Club (the “Club”), play cricket in the true spirit and traditions of the game so that the game can be enjoyed by all, including spectators, opposing players and umpires.

1. Overall Responsibilities of Players
 - (a) Cricket should be played not only within the Laws of Cricket as described by the Hong Kong Cricket Association, but also according to the Spirit of the Game.
 - (b) Any action seen to abuse this Spirit of the Game causes injury to the game itself.

- (c) Umpires are the sole judges of fair and unfair play and team Captains must take appropriate action when required
 - (d) The team Captains are responsible for ensuring that play is conducted within the Spirit of the Game as well as within the Laws of Cricket, at whatever level the game is played.
 - (e) Every player representing the Club is also responsible for, and is expected to make his contribution to ensuring the Spirit of the Game is safeguarded.
2. The Spirit of the Game Involves Respect for:
 - (a) Your opponents
 - (b) Your Captain and team members
 - (c) The role of the umpires
 - (d) The traditional values of the game
 3. It is against the Spirit of the Game to:
 - (a) Dispute or show dissent to an Umpire's decision by word, action or gesture
 - (b) Direct abusive language towards an opponent, umpire or team member
 - (c) Indulge in cheating or any unnecessary gamesmanship, for example by:
 - Appealing knowing the batsman is not out
 - Advancing towards an umpire in an aggressive manner when appealing
 - Seeking to distract an opponent either verbally or by harassment with persistent clapping, excessive appealing or unnecessary noise under the guise of enthusiasm or motivation of one's own team.
 4. Violence
There is no place for any act of violence on or off the field of play.
 5. In Summary
The Spirit of the Game can be summarized as the practical application of respect, good manners and sportsmanship. Additional details can be found in the "Spirit of the Game Appendix".

Club Policies and Procedures

In an endeavour to ensure the Club accepts its responsibility for its part in ensuring that the Spirit of the Game is safeguarded, a number of policies and procedures have been set down by the Cricket Sub-Committee. These policies and procedures are described in "Implementation of the Club Policies and Procedures" below in section 3.

1. Purpose of the Policies and Procedures:
 - (a) To support the Laws of Cricket
 - (b) To address any problems of player behaviour encountered which are seen as contrary to the Spirit of the Game

- (c) To pro-actively address a problem which arises with respect to the Spirit of the Game and player behaviour internally at the Club, irrespective of whether umpires report an incident or not.
- (d) To be known as a Club which plays competitively but responsibly within the Spirit of the Game.
- (e) To be known as a Club which accepts the Umpire's decision at all times and plays the game without dispute, dissent, recrimination or excuse.

2. Expectations of Captains and Players

The practical application of these policies and procedures therefore, carry specific expectations, namely as follows:

- (a) Each team captain will accept that it is their responsibility to ensure play is conducted within the Spirit of the Game as well as within the Laws of Cricket
- (b) Each player, Club Coach and administrator of the Club is responsible for assisting the respective team Captains in contributing to the Spirit of the Game
- (c) Each player has an 'off-field' responsibility to their Club and to the Spirit of the Game. This responsibility includes the appropriate use of social media (see "Use of Social Media" below in section 4).

3. Implementation of the Club Policies and Procedures:

(a) Captain's Meetings

- Prior to the commencement of each season the Captain Of Cricket and Club Coach will meet with all Senior team captains to outline the Cricket Sub-Committee's policy regarding player behaviour. Captains will be required to accept the principles of this policy before they are invited to lead teams in the competitions.

(b) Captain's Role

- Captains will be responsible for the conduct of the Spirit of the Game within their teams. For any breach of the Cricket Sub-Committee's policy on player behaviour the following will take place:
 - The Captain will take appropriate action to uphold the Spirit of the Game. He will, at the first convenient opportunity during or after the days' play:
 - Counsel the player and either inform the Captain Of Cricket that he has followed this course of action or,
 - Refer the matter to the Captain Of Cricket who will organize for the issue to be dealt with by the Cricket Section's Disciplinary Committee, if necessary

(c) Disciplining of Members

- Players
 - The Captain of Cricket will form a Cricket Section Disciplinary Committee comprising of 3 Members of the Cricket Sub-Committee to hear the matter. They may:
 1. Issue a warning in the nature of a reprimand to the member;
 2. Suspend the member for a specified number of matches;

3. If the breach is considered serious, a formal complaint may be made to the General Manager in accordance with the Club's complaint procedures.

4. Otherwise deal with the matter

- Captains
 - Inappropriate behaviour by a Captain will be referred directly to the Cricket Sub-Committee for immediate disciplinary action.
- Club Awards
 - Any player who is suspended from a competition match, officially cautioned or reprimanded either by the Hong Kong Cricket Association or the Cricket Sub-Committee, or who acts against the traditions of the Club in an 'off field' situation, will be ineligible to win a Club Award for that season.

4. Use of Social Media

The Cricket Sub-Committee encourages the use of the internet by Captains and Players to participate in interactive discussions and share information on particular topics using a wide variety of social media, such as Facebook, Twitter, blogs and wikis. However, captains and players use of social media may pose risks to our confidential information and reputation. The Cricket Sub-Committee therefore prohibits all Captains and Players from using social media to:

- (a) Breach the Club's obligations with respect to the rules of the Hong Kong Cricket Association
- (b) Breach the standards of ethics and decent behaviour as outlined in this Code of Conduct and in the Spirit of the Game
- (c) Defame or disparage the Club, its members, any other Captain and Player (including opposition Captains and Players) and other stakeholders
- (d) Discriminate against other Club members and any other Captain and Player (including opposition Captains and Players)

5. The Kowloon Cricket Club Way

All Captains and Players will acknowledge and abide by "The Kowloon Cricket Club Way" as illustrated below.

"Spirit of the Game Appendix"

Umpiring Decisions:

The umpire's decision is final and should be accepted immediately, whether batting or fielding. A bowler is entitled to ask the umpire why he turned the appeal down, but should accept this explanation, if one is given, and immediately play on. The use of offensive language—generally in the form of a disparaging and abusing remark to an umpire is not acceptable.

Walking:

When there are no neutral umpires, a batsman must walk if he is in no doubt that he has been dismissed fairly. Placing pressure on your team-mate, who is acting as umpire, can place doubt in his mind and lead to unnecessary friction between the two teams.

Upon being dismissed:

The actions of the dismissed batsmen – in failing to leave the crease promptly on being given out and then banging his bat on the ground or throwing the bat on returning to the pavilion, including audible foul language, is unacceptable.

Racial Vilification:

Under no circumstances will the club tolerate such behaviour. The Cricket Sub-Committee will deal with Club players if an official HKCA report is not made. Likewise, if a Club player is subjected to such abuse, the Club will take the matter to the HKCA and ensure the matter is dealt with in the appropriate manner.

The guidelines and policies described in this Code of Conduct may be subject to revision and are to be interpreted in a reasonable and objective manner by all Members and Non-Members.
